DISTRICT 690

IN ATLANTA

CLUB 79

July 7,
1975

SPEAKER: LT. GEN. VERNON A. WALTERS
SUBJECT: CIA

Lt. General Vernon A. Walters was born in New York but spent most of his life abroad — attended St. Louis Gonzaga School in Paris, France, Stonyhurst College in England. Entered the U. S. Army as an enlisted man in 1941. Most of his military career was spent in Intelligence. He was made Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and promoted to Lt. General by the President in 1972.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR

27 June 1975

Dear Mr. Turman:

In General Walters' absence and in reply to your request of June 18 I am forwarding herewith the biographical sketch and glossy photograph for use by the Rotary Club Publicity Committee. I regret the delay in getting them to you. Unfortunately, a copy of his speech is not yet available.

Sincerely,

Staff Assistant

Dear General Walters:

The Rotary Club of Atlanta looks forward to your visit with us on Monday, July 7. The local radio and television people have been anxious to get information about you and the Publicity Committee of our Rotary Club has asked for a biographical sketch, a glossy photograph, and a copy of your speech if it is available.

I would appreciate your sending me this material at your earliest convenience.

Looking forward to being with you and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dear General Walters:

I was most pleased to receive a telephone call this morning from Dick Stormont reporting that you are able to be the Rotary speaker on Monday, July 7. This is good news as I am sure the members of the Club will be most interested to hear from you and to learn more about the work of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The Rotary Club of Atlanta meets at 12:30 p.m. at the Top of the Mart in downtown Atlanta and I am sure Dick will arrange for you to get to the meeting at that time. We have lunch at 12:30; then there are a few routine preliminaries such as the introduction of visitors and the making of announcements. The speaker is allotted twenty minutes. If you feel that that is too short a time to do justice to your subject, I am sure there will be no problem if you extend the time to twenty-five minutes. The President of the Club is J. Erskine Love who is the President of Printpack, Inc.

We look forward to having you in the city. With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dear General Walters:

You made an outstanding talk to the Rotary Club of Atlanta on July 7 and I wish to express to you my appreciation for your willingness to come to Atlanta and appear before our Club. I need not say that the standing ovation you got at the conclusion of your talk is a rarity with our Club and speaks more effectively than my words as to the reception your remarks received.

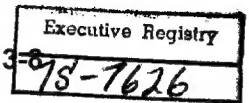

Last Monday, Dick Stormont was formally introduced as a new member of our Club. (There had been some undue delay because of the scheduling of the introductions of new members.) At the time, Mrs. Stormont accompanied him and I had the opportunity of meeting her. She is a charming lady.

With appreciation and best wishes,
I am

Sincerely yours,

Pollard Turman

Dear Dick:

A belated thanks to you for the time and effort devoted to your presentation to the Atlanta Rotary Club recently. Your remarks were received with a great deal of credibility and admiration. Many have told me that they cannot remember hearing a presentation as outstanding as yours.

I hope that it in no way compromised your situation. We would welcome an opportunity sometime in the future to follow-up on the CIA story.

Looking forward to your next visit.

Best regards,

Richard M. Stormont

Dear General Walters:

Your talk before the Atlanta Rotary Club Monday began the new Rotary year for us in grand style! I cannot remember a program which has been more spontaneously and more sincerely appreciated.

As I indicated in my closing remarks, we find it very comforting to know that men like you are giving your lives to public service. We wish you Godspeed as you continue your work in the difficult but challenging area of our nation's defense system.

We invite you to visit with us in Atlanta Rotary any time you are in Atlanta.

Many, many thanks.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Parker.

Many thanks for your kind letter of support for my speech before the Atlanta Rotary. I am grateful also for your expressions of esteem.

I am having the speech transcribed from a recording which was made as I did not have a text. I will send it to you in the next few days.

It is most heartening to all in the Intelligence business to have such an expression of support with every good wish Respectfully.
